

The Lowell's of Hio Ridge Road are pretty well documented and I have compiled some information here to identify those individuals buried in the cemetery.

There are 25 burials; 9 children; 10 adult males and 6 adult females. The earliest burial is Gideon Lowell (this record in our DHS list is labeled Capt. John). And the most recent burial is Theodore Ingalls Lowell in 1910. He was known as Tiddly I.

There are two Lowell Cemeteries in Oxford County, ours and one in Buckfield. The Lowell's are from the same line from England through Newbury and Amesbury Mass.

Both cemeteries are available on-line at Find-a-Grave:
<https://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=csr&CScn=lowell&CScntry=4&CSst=23&CScnty=1219>

There are 2 free e-books worth a look for those searching for Lowell's:

The Historic Genealogy of the Lowells of America from 1639 to 1899
By Delmar Rial Lowell

Genealogical and Personal Memoirs Relating to the Families of the State of Massachusetts, Volume 1 by William Richard Cutter, William Frederick Adams

~~~~~

The following “Descendents of Daniel Lowell” has some repetition as the second Daniel married his sister's daughter, Mary Amanda. The family members buried in our cemetery are highlighted.

You will note other familiar names like Ingalls, Pendexter, Smith and Deering.